On behalf of Pittsburgh Opera, I am pleased to invite you to become a corporate sponsor of Maecenas XLII: Love & Legacy, our organization's premier annual fundraising gala. This year's event will bring together hundreds of Pittsburgh's most influential business and civic leaders for an evening of world-class artistry, exceptional hospitality, and meaningful philanthropic impact.

Our most recent Maecenas gala was the most successful in Pittsburgh Opera's history, a testament to the strength of this event and the caliber of the community it brings together. Corporate sponsorship of Maecenas XLII offers your organization a distinctive platform to align its brand with excellence, culture, and community leadership. Sponsors are recognized across event materials, communications, and the printed program. Sponsorship opportunities range from targeted underwriting of individual event elements to premier and presenting-level partnerships, allowing us to tailor a package that best reflects your organization's philanthropic and marketing objectives.

It is never too early to pledge your support for this event. We are inviting our valued partners to confirm their pledge of support by the end of the calendar year, with payment not due until 2027. This structure allows us to plan with confidence, secure premier recognition placements on your organization's behalf, and ensure your sponsorship is reflected throughout our promotional and donor communications leading up to the gala.

I welcome the opportunity to discuss how a partnership with Pittsburgh Opera can support your community engagement and visibility goals. Please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (412) 281-0912 ext. 225 or tgricks@pittsburghopera.org to discuss available opportunities or to schedule a conversation at your convenience.

Sincerely,

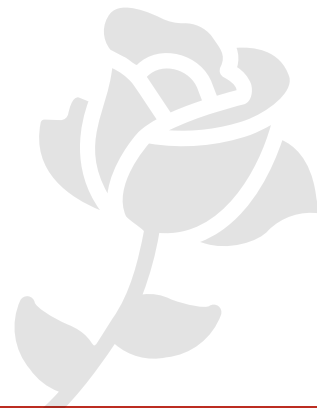

Torrance Gricks
